AGGRAVATED FELONIOUS SEXUAL ASSAULT (RSA 632-A:2), Class A Felony
AGGRAVATED FELONIOUS SEXUAL ASSAULT (RSA 632-A:2), Class A Felony

The investigation began in December 2016 when a victim came forward regarding serious and recurrent sexual abuse by the suspect. The crimes occurred in the 1990's while the victim was a child and living in Concord, New Hampshire.

Concord Police detectives, with the assistance of law enforcement in Tennessee, conducted an extensive investigation into the allegations. Facts and circumstances were corroborated and evidence collected. An arrest warrant was authorized and Concord Police detectives traveled to Knoxville, Tennessee, to further the investigation and arrest Mr. Burr.

With the assistance of the U.S. Marshals Service in New Hampshire and the U.S. Marshals' Smoky Mountains Fugitive Task Force, the TBI and the Knoxville Police, Mr. Burr was located and arrested on an arrest warrant charging him with Felony Fugitive from Justice.

New Hampshire and Tennessee authorities continue to investigate the case(s) as there is the possibility of other victims.

Mr. Burr will be arraigned at the Knoxville County Felony Session Court on a Felony Fugitive from Justice Complaint within the next ten (10) days and a bail bond will be set. The State of New Hampshire fully intends to extradite Mr. Burr to answer the charges in New Hampshire. Upon his return to New Hampshire, he will be arraigned at the 6th Circuit Court District Division - Concord (New Hampshire).

Police are asking that anyone with information pertaining to this case or other related crimes to contact law enforcement in New Hampshire: Det. Lt. Sean Ford (603) 225-8600, or the Concord Regional Crime Line (603) 226-3100. In Tennessee, contact the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (615) 744-4000.
